Business Intelligence Study

Transforming Data into Decisions.

Annams offers the BI/DW Strategy Study service as well as full lifecycle BI/DW design, development, and implementation. Annams follows a prescribed methodology for all BI/DW projects available upon request.

If you are embarking on a BI/DW project at the enterprise-level, we recommend a strategy study. It is our experience that a small investment in a strategy study provides you with a firm idea of the overall time and cost involved along with any risks and constraints.
